

DETONATION

Meaning: Detonation is the rapid explosion of a substance, typically involving the release of energy and shockwaves.

1. The sudden detonation of the explosives sent shockwaves through the surrounding area.
2. After the detonation, the landscape was forever altered, leaving behind a vast crater.
3. The scientists monitored the detonation closely, ensuring all safety protocols were followed.
4. Witnesses described the terrifying moment of detonation as the ground shook violently beneath them.
5. The controlled detonation of the old building marked a significant milestone in the city's redevelopment project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detonation>