

DETONATOR

Meaning: A detonator is a device used to initiate an explosion, often by triggering explosives remotely or directly.

1. The technician carefully examined the detonator before the test explosion.
2. In the movie, the villain used a remote detonator to trigger the bomb from a distance.
3. During the training exercise, soldiers learned how to safely handle a detonator.
4. The construction crew needed a powerful detonator to demolish the old building efficiently.
5. She felt a rush of adrenaline as she pressed the button on the detonator, signaling the start of the operation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detonator>