

DETORTION

Meaning: Detortion refers to a deliberate distortion or alteration of form or meaning that creates an intriguing or misleading effect.

1. The artist's use of detortion in the sculpture created an intriguing visual effect that captivated viewers.
2. In her speech, she warned about the dangers of detortion in media narratives that could skew public perception.
3. The engineers examined the detortion of the metal under pressure to ensure the integrity of the structure.
4. His research focused on the psychological impact of detortion in photographs and how it influenced self-image.
5. The film employed detortion techniques to enhance the surreal nature of the dream sequences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detortion>