

DETRACTOR

Meaning: Detractor: a person who criticizes or disparages someone or something, often to undermine their value or reputation.

1. The artist faced many a detractor who questioned the value of their unconventional style.
2. Despite being a prolific author, she often found herself having to address the criticisms of her detractors.
3. His detractor claimed that his theories lacked empirical support, sparking a heated debate in the academic community.
4. In a world full of supporters, she learned to appreciate the feedback from her detractors as a means to improve.
5. The politician's detractor made headlines by exposing inconsistencies in his previous statements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detracter>