

DETRACTORY

Meaning: Detractory: tending to disparage or belittle; critical or derogatory.

1. Her detractory remarks about the project spread doubt among the team members.
2. Despite his detractory attitude, she remained focused on her goals and ignored the negativity.
3. The detractory reviews of the film did not deter its loyal fanbase from attending the premiere.
4. In a surprising turn of events, his detractory comments about his colleagues backfired during the meeting.
5. The critics' detractory opinions failed to overshadow the artist's undeniable talent and dedication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detractory>