

DETRIMENT

Meaning: Detriment refers to a state of harm or damage that negatively affects well-being or health.

1. The constant stress at work was a detriment to her health and overall well-being.
2. Ignoring the warnings about the side effects could lead to serious detriment in the long run.
3. His excessive spending habits were a detriment to his financial stability.
4. The outdated technology proved to be a detriment in achieving their goals efficiently.
5. Her lack of experience in the field was a detriment during the job interview process.
6. Excessive screen time can be a detriment to a child's social development.
7. The new policy was implemented without considering its potential detriment to employee morale.
8. Ignoring environmental concerns is a detriment to the health of our planet.
9. His decision to skip meals proved to be a serious detriment to his overall well-being.
10. The lack of funding for the arts can lead to a detriment in community culture and creativity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detriment>