

DETRITION

Meaning: Detrition refers to the gradual wearing away or deterioration of material, such as soil or machinery, due to continuous use or environmental factors.

1. Detrition of soil can lead to significant environmental degradation if not managed properly.
2. The constant wear and tear on the machinery resulted in a noticeable detrition that required immediate repairs.
3. In the context of dental health, detrition refers to the gradual loss of enamel due to erosion.
4. The researchers studied the detrition of ancient artifacts to better understand the effects of time and exposure.
5. Her shoes showed signs of detrition after years of daily use on rugged terrain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detrition>