

DETURN

Meaning: Deturn (verb): to divert or redirect attention or focus from one thing to another.

1. The sudden change in direction served to deturn the attention of the crowd.
2. In an effort to deturn the thief, the store owner triggered a silent alarm.
3. The unexpected rain was enough to deturn her plans for a picnic in the park.
4. He tried to deturn the conversation away from the sensitive topic.
5. To deturn the impending disaster, the team quickly devised a new strategy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deturn>