

DEVELOPMENTAL

Meaning: Developmental refers to the processes or stages of growth and change, particularly in relation to physical, cognitive, or emotional development.

1. The researchers conducted a comprehensive study on the developmental stages of children's cognitive abilities.
2. Her developmental skills improved significantly after attending the specialized training program.
3. Understanding the developmental phases of a child's growth is crucial for effective parenting.
4. The organization focuses on developmental projects that aim to enhance community welfare and education.
5. Teachers play a vital role in supporting the developmental needs of their students during formative years.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/developmental>