

DEVEST

Meaning: Devest (verb): to deprive or strip someone of something essential or valuable, often causing emotional or financial distress.

1. The sudden economic downturn could devastate many families who rely on stable incomes.
2. Her decision to end their partnership would devastate him, as he had invested so much emotionally.
3. The loss of the ancient forest may devastate the local wildlife population and disrupt the ecosystem.
4. When the storm hit the coastal town, it threatened to devastate the homes of countless residents.
5. The shocking news was enough to devastate the community, leaving everyone in a state of disbelief.
6. The sudden loss of their home seemed to devastate them emotionally and financially.
7. Hearing the news of her friend's passing served to devastate him in a way he never expected.
8. The economic downturn could potentially devastate many small businesses in the area.
9. Witnessing the destruction caused by the storm began to devastate the entire community.
10. The heartbreaking film left the audience feeling utterly devastated by the end credits.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/devest>