

DEVIATOR

Meaning: Deviator: a device or individual that diverts or alters the course or focus of something, such as fluid flow or a discussion.

1. The engineer designed a deviator to redirect the flow of water in the irrigation system.
2. In the debate, he became a deviator, often straying from the main topic to introduce unrelated issues.
3. The deviator functioned effectively, ensuring that the signal reached its intended destination without interference.
4. After the accident, the road signs were updated to include a deviator that would guide drivers around the construction zone.
5. Her role as a deviator in the conversation sparked new ideas that the group had not considered before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deviator>