

DEVISE

Meaning: To devise means to create or plan something with careful thought and ingenuity.

1. The engineers will devise a new method to increase the efficiency of the solar panels.
2. In order to tackle the issue, the committee decided to devise a comprehensive action plan.
3. She needed to devise a strategy that would ensure the success of her project.
4. To solve the puzzle, he had to devise an entirely new approach that no one had considered before.
5. They worked together to devise a set of guidelines that would improve workplace communication.
6. The team worked late into the night to devise a strategy for the upcoming project.
7. In order to solve the complex problem, they needed to devise a new approach.
8. She was determined to devise a plan that would benefit both the company and its employees.
9. The engineer was tasked with finding a way to devise a more efficient energy system.
10. After much discussion, they finally managed to devise a solution that satisfied all parties involved.
11. The team worked late into the night to devise a new strategy for the upcoming project.
12. She had to devise a plan that would satisfy both her parents and her own ambitions.
13. In order to solve the complex problem, the researchers decided to devise a series of experiments.
14. He was known for his ability to devise innovative solutions to everyday challenges.
15. They needed to devise an effective way to communicate their findings to the public.
16. The engineers worked late into the night to devise a more efficient solar panel design.
17. In order to solve the complex problem, the team had to devise a new strategy.
18. She was determined to devise a plan that would help the community recover from the recent disaster.
19. With their extensive knowledge, the scientists were able to devise a groundbreaking treatment for the disease.

20. The committee met to devise a set of guidelines for the upcoming project.

21. In order to solve the problem, she had to devise an innovative solution that no one had thought of before.

22. They sought to devise a plan that would address both environmental concerns and economic growth.

23. After several brainstorming sessions, we finally managed to devise a curriculum that met all the students' needs.

24. His ability to devise clever solutions under pressure set him apart from his colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/devise>