

DEVISER

Meaning: Deviser: a person who invents, creates, or plans something, especially in a clever or innovative manner.

1. The ingenious deviser of the new software found a solution to the longstanding problem.
2. As a deviser of creative marketing strategies, she transformed the company's brand image.
3. His reputation as a deviser of complex puzzles attracted enthusiasts from around the world.
4. The deviser of the groundbreaking invention received numerous accolades for his work.
5. In the world of architecture, being a skilled deviser means constantly pushing the boundaries of design.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deviser>