DEVOCATION

Meaning: Devocation refers to the act of dedicating oneself to spiritual or religious pursuits, often involving withdrawal from worldly concerns.

1. Devocation from worldly affairs can lead to a deeper understanding of one's self.
2. The ancient ritual involved a devocation to the gods for guidance and protection.
3. In her quest for peace, she found solace in the devocation of her daily routines.
4. His devocation from the corporate world allowed him to pursue his passion for art.
5. The devocation of resources towards community projects has greatly improved local welfare.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/devocation