

DEVORATION

Meaning: Devoration: the act of destroying or consuming something completely, often resulting in significant loss or change.

1. Devoration of the ancient texts revealed secrets long forgotten by scholars.
2. The devoration of the forest left a stark landscape devoid of life.
3. Her devoration of the culinary arts was evident in every dish she prepared.
4. The devoration of old traditions can lead to a loss of cultural identity.
5. His devoration of knowledge was insatiable, driving him to read countless books.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/devoration>