

DEVOW

Meaning: To devow means to formally renounce or reject previously held commitments, beliefs, or affiliations.

1. She decided to devow her previous commitments in order to pursue her passion for art.
2. After much contemplation, he chose to devow the beliefs he had held for so long.
3. The organization encouraged its members to devow any harmful practices that contradicted their values.
4. In a surprising turn of events, the politician chose to devow the party line and support an independent agenda.
5. As part of her personal growth, she aimed to devow negative thought patterns that had hindered her success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/devow>