

DEWLESS

Meaning: Dewless (adjective): lacking moisture or dew, typically referring to a dry environment or surface.

1. The morning sun rose over the dewless field, casting a warm glow on the dry grass.
2. Despite the heavy heat, the flowers remained vibrant and colorful in the dewless garden.
3. She noted the dewless landscape as a sign of the ongoing drought affecting the region.
4. The hikers appreciated the dewless trail, which made for a much easier and cleaner journey.
5. In the absence of moisture, the dewless leaves crunched underfoot as they walked through the forest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dewless>