

DEXTRER

Meaning: To dexterer means to perform or execute movements or actions with skill, agility, or precision.

1. He was known to dexterer in his movements, impressing everyone with his agility.
2. The artist chose to dexterer the colors on her palette to create a more vibrant painting.
3. In chess, a player must dexterer their strategy to outsmart their opponent.
4. She always found a way to dexterer the conversation back to her favorite topic.
5. The athlete learned to dexterer his training routine to improve his performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dextrer>