

DEXTRIN

Meaning: Dextrin is a soluble carbohydrate produced from the hydrolysis of starch, commonly used as a thickening agent in food and easily converted into glucose by the body for energy.

1. Dextrin is often used as a thickening agent in food products.
2. The body can easily convert dextrin into glucose for energy.
3. In the brewing industry, dextrin improves the mouthfeel of beer.
4. Researchers are exploring the potential of dextrin as a dietary fiber.
5. Dextrin is commonly found in snack foods and processed cereals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dextrin>