

DIAGEOTROPISM

Meaning: Diageotropism is the growth of plant roots in a direction that is perpendicular to the force of gravity.

1. Diageotropism refers to the growth of plant roots in a direction that is perpendicular to the gravitational pull.
2. Some researchers study diageotropism to understand how plants adapt to different environmental conditions.
3. The phenomenon of diageotropism can be observed when roots grow horizontally in search of nutrients.
4. In experiments, scientists have manipulated light and gravity to analyze the effects on diageotropism.
5. Understanding diageotropism is essential for improving agricultural practices and crop yields.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diageotropism>