

DIAGLYPH

Meaning: Diaglyph: a decorative engraving or carving that features intricate designs, often used to convey symbolic or cultural meanings.

1. The ancient artifact was adorned with a complex diaglyph that puzzled archaeologists for decades.
2. Artists often incorporate diaglyphs into their work to convey hidden meanings and cultural significance.
3. During the workshop, participants learned how to create their own diaglyphs using traditional techniques.
4. The diaglyph etched into the stone tablet depicted a scene from a long-forgotten myth.
5. Historians are excited to analyze the diaglyph for insights into the civilization's beliefs and practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diaglyph>