

DIALECTIC

Meaning: Dialectic refers to a method of argument or discussion that involves the exchange of opposing ideas or viewpoints to arrive at a deeper understanding or synthesis.

1. The philosopher's lecture focused on the dialectic between thesis and antithesis.
2. In the debate, each side employed dialectic reasoning to challenge the other's position.
3. Her writing explored the dialectic of nature versus nurture in human development.
4. The playwright used a dialectic approach to illustrate the conflicting desires of his characters.
5. Through dialectic discussion, the students were able to deepen their understanding of the complex issue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dialectic>