

DIALOGIST

Meaning: Dialogist: a person skilled in engaging in dialogue, particularly one who facilitates constructive conversations and reconciles differing viewpoints.

1. The dialogist skillfully navigated the conversation, ensuring that both parties felt heard and valued.
2. As a renowned dialogist, she had the unique ability to bring opposing viewpoints together in a constructive manner.
3. In their workshop, the dialogist encouraged participants to share their stories, fostering a deeper understanding among the group.
4. His reputation as a dialogist grew after he mediated a particularly challenging discussion between community leaders.
5. The dialogist's techniques focused on empathy and active listening, making it easier for people to connect with one another.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dialogist>