

DIAMETRALLY

Meaning: Diametrically refers to being directly opposite or completely contrasting, particularly in relation to points or positions.

1. The two sides of the argument were diametrically opposed, leaving no room for compromise.
2. In physics, diametrically opposite points on a sphere hold unique significance in understanding symmetry.
3. Her views on the topic were diametrically different from those of her colleagues, sparking a lively debate.
4. The two teams were diametrically placed in the standings, highlighting the stark contrast in their performances.
5. Their ideologies were diametrically at odds, making collaboration between the two groups nearly impossible.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diametrically>