

DIAPHANIC

Meaning: Diaphanic: characterized by a delicate, translucent quality that allows light to pass through, often creating a soft or ethereal effect.

1. The artist's use of diaphanous materials gave the gown an ethereal quality.
2. In the early morning light, the fog created a diaphanic veil over the landscape.
3. Her diaphanous voice floated through the room, captivating everyone who listened.
4. The curtains were made of a diaphanic fabric that allowed the soft sunlight to filter through.
5. He admired the diaphanic wings of the butterfly as it danced from flower to flower.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diaphanic>