DIAPHANOMETER

Meaning: A diaphanometer is an instrument used to measure the transparency or light transmission of liquids or materials.

1. The researcher used a diaphanometer to measure the transparency of the liquid sample.
2. In the laboratory, the diaphanometer provided precise readings of light transmission through various materials.
3. Understanding how to properly calibrate the diaphanometer was crucial for obtaining accurate results.
4. Engineers often rely on a diaphanometer to evaluate the clarity of optical components.
5. The diaphanometer helped scientists quantify the effects of pollution on water clarity in local rivers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diaphanometer