

DIAPHANOSCOPE

Meaning: A diaphanoscope is an optical instrument used to examine translucent materials by illuminating them to reveal hidden details.

1. The diaphanoscope revealed intricate details of the specimen that were otherwise hidden from view.
2. Using a diaphanoscope in the lab allowed the students to explore the translucent properties of various materials.
3. The artist utilized a diaphanoscope to project stunning light patterns during the installation.
4. In her research on cellular structures, the scientist found the diaphanoscope to be an invaluable tool.
5. The diaphanoscope, a device designed to enhance visibility, was crucial for the demonstration in the museum exhibit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diaphanoscope>