

DIAPHANOUS

Meaning: Diaphanous: characterized by being light, delicate, and translucent, allowing light to pass through.

1. The diaphanous fabric of her dress fluttered gently in the breeze.
2. Under the soft glow of the lanterns, the diaphanous curtains created a dreamlike atmosphere.
3. He marveled at the diaphanous quality of the water, revealing the colorful pebbles beneath the surface.
4. The artist used diaphanous layers of paint to create a sense of depth in the landscape.
5. As the sun set, the diaphanous veil of mist settled over the valley, enchanting all who beheld it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diaphanous>