

DIATRIBE

Meaning: Diatribe: a forceful and bitter verbal attack or criticism against someone or something.

1. His diatribe against the government's policies resonated with many frustrated citizens.
2. The professor's diatribe in class sparked a heated debate among the students.
3. After listening to her diatribe on social media, I felt more confused than informed.
4. The politician's fiery diatribe was aimed at his opponents, but it alienated some of his supporters.
5. She launched into a diatribe about the state of the education system, leaving her audience captivated.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diatribe>