

DIBS

Meaning: DIBS (noun): A claim of a right to something, often made informally to reserve or assert priority over an item or position.

1. I called dibs on the front seat before anyone else could claim it.
2. After finishing my piece of cake, I jokingly said I had dibs on the leftovers.
3. She shouted "dibs" the moment the last slice of pizza was put on the table.
4. He always claims dibs on the best spot at the beach, leaving others to settle for less.
5. They put dibs on the new video game, eager to play it as soon as it was released.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dibs>