

DICHOTOMIST

Meaning: A dichotomist is a person who divides concepts, ideas, or experiences into two contrasting categories, often overlooking complexities and nuances.

1. The dichotomist in the debate emphasized the clear distinctions between the two opposing viewpoints.
2. As a dichotomist, she often categorized her experiences into black-and-white scenarios, ignoring the gray areas in between.
3. His dichotomist approach to problem-solving made it difficult for him to embrace more nuanced solutions.
4. In her writings, the dichotomist highlighted how society often frames issues in binary terms, overlooking complexity.
5. The film critiques the dichotomist perspective that oversimplifies human emotions into love or hate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dichotomist>