

DICOCCOUS

Meaning: DICOCCOUS refers to a botanical characteristic of plants that produce seeds in pairs, typically enclosed in a single fruit or capsule.

1. The plant species in this region are primarily dicoccous, showcasing a unique seed structure.
2. Researchers noted that the dicoccous formation helps in the dispersal of seeds by wind.
3. In her botanical study, she focused on dicoccous grains and their evolutionary advantages.
4. The dicoccous nature of the plant allows for efficient nutrient storage during its growth cycle.
5. Farmers are increasingly interested in dicoccous crops for their resilience to drought conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dicoccous>