

DICTAPHONE

Meaning: A dictaphone is a brand of voice recording device used to capture and playback audio, often for transcription or documentation purposes.

1. The journalist used a dictaphone to record her interviews for the upcoming article.
2. After the meeting, he played back the dictaphone to ensure he hadn't missed any important details.
3. She preferred a dictaphone for taking notes during lectures, as it allowed her to focus on listening.
4. The old dictaphone sat in the corner of the office, a relic of a bygone era of recording technology.
5. He realized he had left his dictaphone at home just moments before his important conference call.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dictaphone>