

DIDAL

Meaning: Didal: a captivating or serene artistic or natural creation that evokes a sense of beauty and tranquility.

1. The artist's latest exhibit featured a stunning piece called "Didal," which captivated everyone who entered the gallery.
2. During our hike, we stumbled upon a hidden valley that felt like a didal of nature, untouched and serene.
3. The ancient manuscript contained a rare word, didal, which scholars believe refers to a sacred ritual.
4. In her dream, she found herself in a vibrant market where every stall was filled with colorful goods, and the air was thick with the aroma of didal spices.
5. As he recounted the tale, the storyteller emphasized how the protagonist's journey was not just physical, but a didal of the soul.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/didal>