DIFFAME

Meaning: Diffame (verb): to damage someone's reputation or character by making false statements or spreading misleading information.

1. The article was written to diffame the politician's reputation without any solid evidence.
2. In an attempt to diffame her character, anonymous sources spread false rumors online.
3. They wanted to diffame the company's image just to gain an advantage in the market.
4. It's disheartening to see how easily people will diffame someone for personal gain.
5. The documentary aimed to expose the truth rather than diffame the individuals involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diffame