

DIFFER

Meaning: To differ means to be unlike or distinct in nature, characteristics, or opinion.

1. We may have different opinions on the matter, but that doesn't mean we can't find common ground.
2. The two products differ significantly in terms of quality and price.
3. It's important to recognize how cultural backgrounds can differ from one another.
4. People often differ in their approaches to problem-solving, which can lead to innovative solutions.
5. She asked how their experiences differ from hers, eager to learn about new perspectives.
6. People often differ in their opinions about what makes a great movie.
7. The two cities differ significantly in their cultural offerings and lifestyles.
8. It's important to remember that we all differ in our strengths and weaknesses.
9. The results of the experiment differ from what we initially expected.
10. Children differ in their learning styles, which can affect their academic performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/differ>