

DIFFIDE

Meaning: Diffide (adjective): lacking confidence or self-assurance; timid or shy.

1. She tends to diffide in social situations, often avoiding eye contact with strangers.
2. His diffide nature made it difficult for him to share his thoughts during meetings.
3. Despite her accomplishments, she remained diffide, reluctant to take credit for her hard work.
4. The diffide boy stood at the edge of the playground, watching others play without joining in.
5. In a room full of confident speakers, his diffide demeanor made him feel out of place.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diffide>