

DIFFIDENCY

Meaning: Diffidency refers to a lack of self-confidence or shyness, particularly in social situations or when expressing oneself.

1. Her diffidency in social situations often made it difficult for her to engage with new people.
2. Despite his intelligence, his diffidency in expressing his ideas held him back during meetings.
3. The artist's diffidency was evident as she hesitated to showcase her latest work to the public.
4. Overcoming his natural diffidency allowed him to finally pursue the leadership role he had always desired.
5. In moments of diffidency, she found solace in writing, where her thoughts flowed freely without judgment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diffidency>