

DIFFIDENT

Meaning: Diffident: lacking self-confidence or assertiveness; shy and reserved in demeanor.

1. Her diffident demeanor made it difficult for her to assert her ideas in group discussions.
2. Despite his diffident nature, he surprised everyone with a powerful speech at the conference.
3. The artist's diffident approach to self-promotion often left her work overlooked in the competitive gallery scene.
4. Even though she was highly capable, her diffident attitude prevented her from applying for the leadership position.
5. He smiled shyly, his diffident personality contrasting sharply with his ambitious goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diffident>