

DIFFINITIVE

Meaning: DIFFINITIVE: serving to provide a final or conclusive answer or decision; definitive.

1. The team's research provided a diffinitive answer to the longstanding debate in the scientific community.
2. Her diffinitive style set her apart from her peers and made her a trendsetter in the industry.
3. The scholar was praised for his diffinitive analysis that reshaped the understanding of the historical event.
4. The legal document served as a diffinitive guide for resolving disputes among the parties involved.
5. After years of exploration, they finally discovered the diffinitive source of the river that had puzzled geographers for centuries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diffinitive>