

DIFFRACTIVE

Meaning: DIFFRACTIVE: relating to or causing the bending and spreading of waves, especially light, resulting in patterns or effects.

1. The diffractive patterns created by the laser highlighted the intricate details of the surface.
2. Scientists studied the diffractive elements in the new optical device to enhance its performance.
3. In photography, a diffractive lens can significantly reduce the size of the camera while maintaining image quality.
4. The artist experimented with diffractive materials to produce stunning light displays in her installation.
5. Understanding how light behaves in diffractive media is crucial for advancements in telecommunications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diffractive>