

DIFFUSIVE

Meaning: Diffusive refers to the tendency to spread out or scatter, particularly in relation to light or the mixing of substances.

1. The diffusive nature of light allows it to scatter and fill a room evenly.
2. In chemistry, diffusive processes play a crucial role in the mixing of substances.
3. The artist's use of diffusive colors created a soft, ethereal quality in the painting.
4. Researchers observed the diffusive spread of pollutants in the water system over time.
5. His diffusive personality made it easy for him to connect with people from all walks of life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diffusive>