

DIFFUSIVENESS

Meaning: Diffusiveness refers to the quality of spreading out or dispersing widely, often in relation to scents or ideas.

1. The diffusiveness of the aroma filled the room, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.
2. Her diffusiveness in conversations often left her friends feeling overwhelmed and distracted.
3. The scientist noted the diffusiveness of the substance, which affected the experiment's outcome.
4. In literature, the diffusiveness of the author's style can either enhance or dilute the impact of the narrative.
5. The diffusiveness of light in the fog created an ethereal quality to the evening landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diffusiveness>