

DIGGING

Meaning: DIGGING: The act of breaking up and moving earth or soil, often to search for something buried or to uncover objects of interest.

1. She spent the afternoon digging in her garden, hoping to find some buried treasure.
2. The archaeologists were digging carefully to uncover the ancient ruins without damaging them.
3. Digging a hole in the sand, the children built a fort on the beach.
4. He was digging deep into his memories, trying to recall the details of that summer.
5. Digging through the old boxes, she discovered letters from her grandmother.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/digging>