

DIJUDICANT

Meaning: DIJUDICANT: a person who adjudicates or resolves disputes, particularly in a legal context.

1. The dijudicant was tasked with resolving the complex dispute between the two parties.
2. In the courtroom, the dijudicant listened carefully to both sides before making a decision.
3. Her role as a dijudicant required not only legal expertise but also a deep understanding of human nature.
4. The decision of the dijudicant was met with mixed reactions from the audience.
5. As a seasoned dijudicant, he had seen many cases but none as challenging as this one.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dijudicant>