

DILAPIDATE

Meaning: To dilapidate means to cause (a building or structure) to fall into a state of disrepair or ruin, often due to neglect or damage.

1. The abandoned house began to dilapidate after years of neglect.
2. Heavy rains and wind can quickly dilapidate even the sturdiest structures.
3. The once-grand mansion now stands dilapidated, a shadow of its former glory.
4. If the community doesn't step in to restore the park, it will continue to dilapidate.
5. The old railway station is at risk of dilapidation if funding for repairs isn't secured.
6. The old mansion had been dilapidated over the years, its once grand facade now crumbling.
7. He watched in dismay as the neglect began to dilapidate the community park he loved as a child.
8. If we do not maintain our infrastructure, we risk allowing it to dilapidate beyond repair.
9. The abandoned factory stood dilapidated and overgrown, a haunting reminder of a once-thriving industry.
10. Her efforts to restore the dilapidated library were met with enthusiasm from the townspeople.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dilapidate>