

DILAPIDATED

Meaning: Dilapidated: in a state of disrepair or ruin due to neglect or age.

1. The once grand mansion now stood dilapidated, its walls crumbling and paint peeling.
2. After years of neglect, the dilapidated barn became a haunting reminder of better times.
3. They decided to renovate the dilapidated theater, hoping to restore its former glory.
4. The dilapidated car sat abandoned in the lot, a relic of a forgotten era.
5. Despite its dilapidated state, the old library still held a charm that attracted visitors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dilapidated>