

DIALOGICAL

Meaning: DIALOGICAL: characterized by illogical reasoning or arguments that are confusing and lack clarity.

1. His arguments were often dilogical, leading to confusion rather than clarity.
2. The dilogical nature of her reasoning made it difficult for others to follow her line of thought.
3. In a debate filled with dilogical statements, it became clear that logic was not the priority.
4. Despite his dilogical approach, he managed to persuade a few listeners with his charisma.
5. The critique focused on the dilogical patterns in the author's thesis, highlighting inconsistencies throughout.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dilogical>