

DILUTE

Meaning: To dilute means to make a substance less concentrated by adding a solvent or another substance.

1. To make the solution less concentrated, you need to dilute it with water.
2. The artist decided to dilute the paint to achieve a more subtle shade.
3. If you dilute the acid too much, it may lose its effectiveness.
4. Adding a few drops of lemon juice can help dilute the sweetness of the dessert.
5. The company plans to dilute its shares to raise more capital for expansion.
6. The scientist decided to dilute the concentrated solution to achieve the desired concentration.
7. To improve the flavor, you can dilute the juice with some water.
8. The company aimed to dilute the brand's image by expanding into more casual markets.
9. When mixing the paint, be careful not to dilute it too much, or the color may lose its vibrancy.
10. In order to reduce the strength of the acid, we need to dilute it with a suitable solvent.
11. To make the solution less concentrated, you should dilute the acid with water.
12. The artist chose to dilute the vibrant colors to create a more muted effect.
13. When preparing the medication, it's essential to dilute it according to the prescribed instructions.
14. The company aimed to dilute the impact of negative press by launching a positive campaign.
15. If you dilute your arguments with too much detail, the main point may get lost.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dilute>