

DILUTED

Meaning: DILUTED: made weaker or less concentrated by the addition of another substance or by external factors.

1. The original flavor of the juice was lost when it was diluted with too much water.
2. Her enthusiasm for the project was diluted by the constant setbacks and criticism.
3. The effectiveness of the medication can be diluted if it's mixed with certain foods.
4. As the light traveled through the fog, it became increasingly diluted and hard to see.
5. The company's message was diluted in the lengthy presentation, losing its impact on the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diluted>